

101 and more fund-raising ideas to help get you started on your Fairy Box Stardust Pledge

1. Used toy sale
2. Dress up/down day
3. Themed Un birthday party- where gifts fill a Fairy Box
4. Fairies and goblins football match
5. Fairy Tee Party on the golf course
6. Story telling marathon
7. Sponsored Fairy tale write your own line by line
8. Fairy and pirates toddle
9. Fairy cake bake
10. A pyjama day

And here's some more from www.simple-fundraising-ideas.com

11. 100 Club
12. Annual Event dance/fireworks/New Year party, etc
13. Annual Subscription/Membership
14. Art Sale / Auction
15. Auction of Promises
16. Bad Hair Day
17. Balloon Races
18. Balls & Dances mid-summer, Valentines Day, New Year or Christmas
19. Barn Dances
20. Beetle Drive
21. Bingo night
22. Bucket or Street Collections outside stores and in shopping malls
23. Burns Night Celebrations
24. Car Boot sales
25. Car Wash
26. Singing
27. Celebrity Speaker Event (eg.figures)
28. Challenge Events
29. Charity Stall for Sales of Second Hand items
30. Cheese & Wine Evenings
31. Chess Competition
32. Christmas Card & calendar sales
33. Christmas Fair
34. Clay Pigeon Shoot
35. Clothes Swap - ask people to donate those unwanted items with their price tags still on
36. Coffee Morning
37. Concerts
38. Cookery Book

39. Cookery Demo or Themed Food Evening
40. Country Walk or Ramble
41. Craft Fair
42. Crazy Golf Match
43. Disco
44. Doughnuts - another idea for students and young people. Selling fresh doughnuts can have a high profit margin and be a quick and effective fundraiser when you have a captive audience.
45. Donations
46. Duck Races
47. Easter Egg Hunt
48. Face Painting
49. Family Portrait / Photo
50. Fancy dress party
51. Fashion Shows
52. Fetes
53. Fifty Fifty Raffle - you sell tickets for £1 each, the winner from the drawing wins half the money raised, your organisation keeps the other half. Depending on how many tickets you sell, you could raise $20 or $200.
54. Film Premiere sponsor or show a new film, though you may have to consider asking for "donations" rather than charge a fee
55. Fireworks Display
56. Flower Arranging Demonstration
57. Football Match / Tournament
58. Fun Runs
59. Garden Parties
60. Generous Giving from Wealth Individuals
61. Gladiators / It's a Knockout
62. Golf Events
63. Grants from Fundraising Bodies & Trusts
64. Helping Hand service offer to cut peoples grass, walk their dogs or look after their home whilst they're on holiday, asking for a donation in return
65. Horse Racing evening
66. International Evenings themed evenings, Italian, Indian, Australian, etc
67. Just Giving use Facebook and MySpace to let your friends and family know all about it
68. Karaoke Evening
69. Litter Picking - Sponsored
71. Make Overs
72. Mile of Pennies / Coins
73. Mufti, Dress Down or Non-Uniform Day
74. Murder Mystery evening
75. Music Quiz
76. Mystery Tour / Trip

77. Open Garden Events
78. Paintballing
79. Pancake Day party
80. Parachute Jump
81. Plant Sale
82. Playstation party get your mates to bring their PS2 & PS3's round and charge everyone to play the different games
83. Poetry Competition
84. Pub Tournaments e.g. darts, Skittles, darts, pool, cards
85. Quit It give up chocolate / smoking / etc for a week / month
86. Quiz Night
87. Raffles - the first year just go with what prizes you can. As you repeat though, you'll find businesses are more willing to donate to something with a successful history, so you'll probably find that you're "on a roll" and things will just get bigger and better every year.
88. Rambles
89. Readathon - ideal for primary schools, students get sponsored for every book they read or just a flat donation for pupils that just need to be encouraged to read
90. Run a Marathon
93. Scavenger Hunt
94. Selling Christmas Gifts from Catalogues
95. Seventies Night / Disco
96. Singing Telegrams on Mother's Day. Ideal for students, call your mother and sing the song of your choosing for a small charge.
97. Smarties tubes collect £1 coins for your cause
99. Sponsored Anything - Hot Tub a Thon, you name it, having fun is the name of the game !
100. Sponsored Head/Hair shave
101. Sponsored Jail break
102. Sponsored Silence
103. Spring clean your wardrobes and sell on eBay
104. Spring Flowers & Hanging Baskets Demonstration & Plant Sale
105. Strawberries & Cream Tea party at Wimbledon time. Also how about hand dipped chocolate strawberries as a student graduation or end of exams event
106. Talent Show
107. Ten Pin Bowling
108. Tennis tournament
109. Treasure Hunts
111. Unwanted Gift Sale perfect after Christmas
113. Wine Tastings
114. Salsa Night
115. Welly Throwing Competition

